

B1 Level Opinion Paragraph Writing Course Syllabus

Weeks	Units	Learning Outcomes
1 16 – 20 February	Unit 1. Word Classes (pp. 2-19)	Identify and use basic word classes (nouns, verbs, adjectives, adverbs, etc.)
2 23 – 27 February	Unit 2. Sentence Structure and Types Unit 3. The Writing Process (pp. 20-42)	Understand the basic components of a sentence (subject, verb, object, complement, adjunct) Differentiate between simple, compound, complex, and compound-complex sentences Construct grammatically correct sentences to prepare for paragraph writing Understand the stages of the writing process (planning, drafting, revising, editing)
3 02 – 06 March	Unit 4. Introduction to the Paragraph (pp. 43-64)	Understand the concept and purpose of a paragraph Identify the topic sentence, supporting sentences, and concluding sentence Recognize unity and coherence as essential features of a paragraph
4 09 – 13 March	Unit 5. Introduction to the Opinion Paragraph (pp. 65-72)	Learn the structure of an opinion paragraph Generate ideas and organize them into an outline for an opinion paragraph
Writing Exam, March 13th, 2026
5 16 – 20 March 19th (1/2) and 20th Public Holiday	Unit 5. Opinion Paragraph Writing: First Draft and Peer/Teacher Feedback Session (pp. 72-81)	Write a complete opinion paragraph following the learned structure Engage in peer review to provide and receive constructive feedback Revise written work based on teacher and peer feedback
6 23 – 27 March	Second Opinion Paragraph Writing Practice: Teacher Feedback Session (pp. 82-83)	Practice writing opinion paragraphs with more fluency Apply feedback to improve organization, clarity, and grammar Develop stronger arguments and supporting details
7 30 March – 03 April	Third Opinion Paragraph Writing Practice: Teacher Feedback Session (pp. 84-90)	Continue writing and refining opinion paragraphs Strengthen coherence and cohesion in writing Enhance accuracy in grammar and vocabulary use
8 06 – 10 April	Paragraph Writing Revision (pp. 91-92)	Revise opinion paragraphs to improve clarity, coherence, and unity Edit written work for grammar, vocabulary accuracy, and sentence structure
Writing Exam, April 10th, 2026
		Apply teacher and peer feedback effectively to strengthen final drafts Reflect on progress and identify areas for further development in paragraph writing